You can claim help with school travel costs for your child if you:

- live over the qualifying distance from school

Your child's main home must be more than 3 miles (2 miles if your child is aged under 8) from the nearest qualifying school*. If your child attends a school based on religion or belief, the school must be less than 15 miles from the child's home.

- are on a low income

1. Your child must qualify for free school meals OR you must receive the maximum level of Working Tax Credit AND
2. You live between 2 and 6 miles from the nearest qualifying school* (between 2 and 15 miles if attending school on grounds of religion or belief).

- have a child with special educational needs or mobility difficulties

Your child must have a physical disability or medical condition that prevents them from walking to school, even with help, AND:

1. They have a statement of special education needs and attend the nearest appropriate school named in the statement OR,
2. They attend mainstream school and live more than 3 miles (2 miles if aged under 8) from their school.
